This is a two and one half story frame house covered with brown shingles. The hip roof has a large hip roofed dormer on the front as well as on the north and south. The roof has an overhang of a couple of feet and is ornamented by a series of long narrow plain modillions. The four bay front facade is spanned by a one story semi-enclosed porch which extends around the north and south facades also. In front of the door, a flat roof portico over a flight of steps, extends in front of the porch. This portico is supported by two shingled piers with a flat arch between them. On the north side of the house is an open carport, supported by three large piers.
